Voice of Fabio Viviani

Hey everybody, chef Fabio Viviani here – I am looking forward to our upcoming gathering with First Clearing on Thursday, July 22, 3:00pm central time, to make a wonderful dish together. Now guys, on the menu, for this upcoming event we have one of my favorites, my absolute favorite, steak dish topped with blue cheese fondue and a nice citrus salad. Now also, you will be receiving all the ingredients to make this dish together with me. As soon as you receive them, put them in the frig and take them out about 1 hour prior to the class and learn how to make this delightful entrée with me together virtually. Guys we are excited to be hosting you, I can't wait to see you there.
